

Fash Fasoro, The DataKirk, UK

Fash Fasoro is a leading immigration expert at ACN, regulated at the highest level 3 by the Office of Immigration Service Commissioner (OISC). He has personally experienced the challenges faced by temporary migrants in the UK, and has run over 350 workshops on navigating the UK Immigration Systems, with a special focus on helping Talent to remain in the UK and businesses achieving competitive advantage.

As the visionary founder of The DataKirk, established in 2019, Fash is on a mission to bridge the attainment gap and data divide in Scotland. Under his leadership, The DataKirk has grown into a multifaceted charity, driving initiatives such as DaYii, AccelerateBLK, TalentPointr, and the Data Literacy Club. The organisation focuses on improving talent pooling, upskilling, and enhancing employment opportunities for marginalised communities. Fash's dedication to diversity and inclusion within the digital and data economy is unwavering. His background includes expertise in Immigration Law, AI, Data Management, and Housing, making him a transformative figure in both fields.
